Anticipated Attendance: 2,350

Group Description

Nacha: The Electronic Payments Association is a nonprofit organization that governs the ACH Network, the backbone of electronic payments in the United States. Nacha brings together a diverse range of financial institutions, fintechs, and payment professionals to advance secure, fast, and efficient payment solutions. Nacha also leads industry collaboration and education through initiatives like its flagship event, the Smarter Faster Payments Annual Meeting. This premier convention attracts thousands of payment system stakeholders each year, offering a dynamic platform for networking, innovation, and shaping the future of electronic payments.

Attendee Profile

Attendees typically include payments industry leaders, technology and product development teams, compliance and risk professionals, accounting and legal specialists, and business strategists focused on innovation and operational excellence within the payments ecosystem. The event also brings together solution providers, technology vendors, and exhibitors showcasing the latest fintech tools and services, creating a vibrant environment for networking, collaboration, and hands-on discovery. With educational sessions, keynote presentations, interactive discussions, and ample networking opportunities, this meeting is built for those who want to stay on the cutting edge of payments evolution and build valuable industry partnerships.
